Haddon Heights Library Expands Hours

Earlier this year, the library sent out a survey to all residents. The goal of the survey was to find out what our residents liked about the library, but more importantly, what services and areas could be improved. Based on the results, the Board of Trustees is happy to announce that the library will no longer be closed during what has always been referred to as the "dinner hour." The new hours will be Monday - Friday, 10 a.m. - 9 p.m. The library will continue to be open every Saturday from 10 a.m. - 2 p.m. These new hours will be effective beginning on Monday, January 6, 2014.

MAYOR'S MESSAGE:

Dear Neighbors:

Many of you have noticed that the Glover Mill project is underway. On October 19th, a Groundbreaking Ceremony was held to kick-off this exciting new addition to our town. Not only will this project bring beautiful new homes to our community, it will also add accessible open space to our community as well as give the historic Glover Fulling Mill prominence. It has taken a lot of work to get to reach this point. I would like to thank the Borough Council, our Planning Board, our Borough Engineer and Bob Meyer Communities for all of their efforts.

One of our most exciting events of the year is approaching – the annual Holiday Parade on Station Avenue. I know many of you look forward to this traditional which welcomes the holiday season every year. Our volunteers are busy with every detail of this great event which will take place the evening of Friday, November 29th at 6:30 p.m., the day after Thanksgiving. Gather the family and come out and enjoy the Parade!

We recently concluded another election season here in town. I would like to congratulate Councilwoman Susan Griffith on her re-election to Borough Council. I would also like to congratulate and welcome Councilman-elect Earl Miller.

The newly elected Board of Education members, Lisa Long, Jane Shissler, and Joseph Lucia are all volunteers that we are looking forward to working with. Please join me in thanking all of our volunteer elected officials.

Speaking of the school district, we should all congratulate the Haddon Heights Band for recently winning the US Bands

National Marching Band Title! This is an amazing achievement for our young people; we should all be very proud of their success. On behalf of your hometown, thank you to everyone who is involved with the Band and for everything that you do.

This is our last issue of the Heights Report for 2013, so in closing, I wish all of you a happy, healthy and safe holiday season. We are looking forward to a prosperous 2014. As always, if there is anything that you would like to communicate to your municipal government, please feel free to stop in or place a call to Borough Hall.

Your Mayor,

Haddon Heights Good Neighbors

Haddon Heights Good Neighbors
625 Station Avenue
Haddon Heights, NJ 08035

It's been quite a year for Haddon Heights and HHGN. Most notably, a gas explosion on the White Horse Pike injured a young woman and left six people homeless. The Haddon Heights Police Department asked Good Neighbors to help handle the relief effort and we are in awe of the generous donations (earmarked specifically for the victims) that poured in from all over the Delaware Valley. HHGN was able to distribute individual checks of more than $2,300 to help these six people in their quests to heal and resettle.

In addition to the victims of the gas explosion, there were other neighbors in need--people who lost jobs, became ill, or for various reasons, came into crisis. Here is a listing of what your financial support was able to provide:

- Holiday food certificates for 20 families (44 individuals);
- Hot meals to 16 residents of Stanfill Towers;
- Security deposits, rent and shelter payments for 11 families;
- Utility bills for 5 families;
- Heater Repairs, food certificates, student loan, furniture, Rx, clothing and household supplies for a total of 6 individuals; and
- Deliveries of local, fresh produce grown and provided by the Haddon Heights Community Garden to 6 families

And so, as another fiscal year begins for Haddon Heights Good Neighbors, we ask for your continued support. We love hearing from people in town and we LOVE the creative ways people raise funds for HHGN. Garage sale proceeds, the Tour de Heights, Denim Days, lemonade stands...the list goes on. We thank you for keeping it up and keeping it local!

As big city libraries and art museums do, Haddon Heights Library will be dispossessing some of its duplicate pictures. Last summer through a grant received by former Head Librarian Bob Hunter, we met with an archivist who reviewed the holdings of the History Room of the Library. The archivist recommended disposing of duplicates and any pictures not depicting Haddon Heights. In her words, "Even if it's a Picasso, if it's not of Haddon Heights, it goes."

Look for this "discarded" art sale to take place Saturday, May 11 during Down by the Station Day from 10 a.m. Art will be featured in local store windows and at the Library from May 1 on. ### The Frandy Jean Gallery

Frandy Jean arrived in the United States at the end of September 2012 and in April 2013 he opened the Frandy Jean Art Gallery in Haddon Heights, New Jersey. Haddon Heights was an obvious choice because Frandy's close friends, Gina and Sal Yacovelli, are from the area. Gina is a Heights alumna and she taught at St. Rose of Lima over four years through 2010. Along with Sal, Gina met Frandy in Haiti during a volunteer trip. In addition, Haddon Heights' location is advantageous for its proximity to major routes and public transportation as well as its reputation for an active community spirit. It was this community spirit that welcomed Frandy to the area when Mrs. Michnowski, the art teacher for Haddon Heights elementary schools, invited

Frandy as a guest speaker. He shared tales of his life in Haiti while expounding the importance of education and working towards your dreams. It also allowed Frandy to reinforce the gallery's mission, which is to promote the arts, especially for students. Frandy volunteered as an art mentor for two County teen arts festivals. The Frandy Jean Gallery held a juried student show and also served as a host location for Camden County's teen arts tour. Frandy's devotion to students and art has been evident since his arrival in America and Frandy has been asked to participate in the opening of an African American museum scheduled for November 25 in Atlantic City, New Jersey.

Spelling Bee

The Haddon Heights Elementary Parent Teacher Group will be hosting their First Annual Elementary Spelling Bee on January 24th, 2014 at the Atlantic Elementary School Gym at 6pm. While refreshments will be sold at the event, admission to attend the final round of the competition will be a non-perishable food item. This event will host some of the best spellers from the fourth, fifth and sixth grades from each elementary school. The students do not need to enter. Early rounds of the Spelling Bee will be conducted as part of a classroom assignment. All of the fourth through sixth grade students will participate in the class level spelling bee, and then if they make it to the next round, their parents will be contacted by email or paper form. All students will be supplied a list of possible words in preparation for the first round of spelling bee competitions which will take place after the students return from winter vacation. The Elementary Parent Teacher Group (PTG) anticipates this event to be very competitive while fun for all the participants. We encourage all students and parents to attend the final rounds of the Spelling Bee to support their fellow classmates!

A Howlin' Thank You!

We would like to take this opportunity to thank everyone who came out to support our Hoots N Howls fundraising event this year! Our goal this year is to increase educational resources and programs for elementary students throughout the district. Together, with your help, we raised over $10,000 to donate to our students!!! Great Job!! We appreciate the time, effort and skills of all of the parent and student volunteers that made this event possible. Thank you to our ride, game and book sponsors including our presenting sponsoring Bob Myers Communities. A parade sponsored by the Haddon Heights Business Association kicked off the day's event! Firetrucks, live music and costume adorned Halloween enthusiasts marked the opening act to the Hoots N Howls event. Games, crafts, rides, face painting, magic show, dance performance by Gotta Dance of Runnemedede and more, provided ample entertainment for attendees of all ages. New additions to the event included the pumpkin carving contest and costume contest. Contest winners included Kashius Franklin for his "Under the Sea" pumpkin; and costume contest winners, Rylee Russell, Sunny Klemash, Luke Russell and "The Big Cheese". A big thank you to our contest prize sponsors including Royal Fitness, Amerikick, Yogo Factory and East State Penitentiary. Classrooms from each school donated baskets to be raffled at the event. A total of 26 baskets were donated and contained dozens of great gifts including gift certificates, games, electronic devices, musical instruments, sports tickets and more. Also, we would like to thank all of the Haddon Heights Elementary School teachers who donated baked goods for the event as well. We welcomed attendees throughout our community and neighboring communities. We hope to continue the tradition and grow each year! Thank you again to all that volunteered their time and attended to make this event a true success!

Haddon Heights School District

On October 18th, students, staff, and members of the community came out to the Haddon Heights Football game to "Bubble Up Awareness." Before and during the game, students from the district's Teen Pep group sold bubbles and bracelets to raise funds and, more importantly, awareness for students with disabilities. Students and parents from Glenview School, as well as others, volunteered their time to create the bracelets in garnet and gold! During half time, the crowd released bubbles to raise awareness. Excitement was high as the football announcer counted down and soon the field was full of bubbles. "Bubble Up Awareness" was a kick-off event for the "Ability Awareness" district initiative that supports inclusion. The elementary school students are invited to bubble up awareness in the school yard on November 14th during recess.

For the past two years, the Haddon Heights Child Study Team staff members along with the Special Education Parent Advocacy Group (SEPAG) and the Special Teachers Exceptional Parents and Students (STEPS) Group have teamed up to plan extraordinary lessons and activities that increased the level of awareness

Haddon Heights Baptist Church

This Fall, Haddon Heights Baptist Church began sponsoring a Good News Club of Child Evangelism Fellowship in the Haddon Heights Public Elementary Schools. All elementary students are invited to attend the club, which meets each Tuesday after school dismissal at the Seventh Avenue School. Children will enjoy Bible stories, songs, Scripture memory verses and snacks. Child Evangelism Fellowship is an international ministry working in public schools in the USA and 182 other countries.

On October 31, the church joined the borough in helping to make Halloween safer by distributing bagged candy to several hundred passing trick-or-treaters at Third and Station Avenues, on the church lawn. Thirsty and hungry masqueraders and their parents also helped themselves to pretzel nuggets and cider.

On Sunday evening, November 24, the church will hold its annual Thanksgiving service, "Pie and Praise". Those attending will share their favorite pies as they share stories of the Lord's goodness and provision throughout the year, much as the pilgrims did on that first Thanksgiving. All are welcome at 6:00pm.

December at Haddon Heights Baptist is chock full of special events. On December 8, two Christmas programs will be presented. At 10:45am, The Shepherds Special Needs Department will perform the Christmas play "The Christmas Visitor." In the evening, at 6:00pm, The Children's Christmas Choir will present a holiday musical, "It All Happened in the Country."

On Sunday evening, December 15 at 6:00pm, The Adult Choir will present a cantata entitled "The King: The Long Awaited Promise." The program includes choral pieces and drama with a full orchestra.

December, 2013

Baptist Regional School, a ministry of Haddon Heights Baptist Church will perform its Senior High Christmas Concert on Tuesday, December 17 at 7:00pm. The program includes Christmas selections from the 80 voice choir, the orchestra and the award-winning music team, Vocal Forte.

On December 18, all are invited to the annual Live Nativity at Haddon Heights Baptist, which will be staged between 6:30pm and 8:30pm on the Great Lawn at Third and Station Avenues. Actors, singers and live animals will present the glorious Christmas Story.

Christmas Eve at the church is celebrated with a candlelight service beginning at 7:00pm. AWANA Clubs at Haddon Heights Baptist continues each Wednesday evening from 7:00pm to 8:30pm. AWANA is kids clubs for pre-K through 6th-graders that feature exciting games, character-building work books, challenging devotionals and plenty of special events throughout the year. December club nights will feature Christmas themed activities, including caroling to shut-ins throughout the area.

The church's Jr/Sr High Youth Group meets on Wednesdays from 7:00pm to 8:30pm September through June. Come and enjoy food, fun and fellowship, a challenging speaker, good music and games.

ROTARY HONORS ELDEST ACTIVE MEMBER

John "Jack" Parvin has been a member of Rotary since 1953. In Admiration and Appreciation of a lifetime of dedicated service to his Club, his Church and his Country, an award banquet was recently held in his honor, with many of his close friends in attendance. Parvin served as an high ranking officer with Gen. George Patton in WWII during liberation of the concentration camps. Upon his return home, he designed, oversaw construction, and managed the Weyerhaeuser plant in Barrington, NJ for many years. Jack turned 95 this past year, and had maintained 50 years of perfect attendance at Rotary. His sharp wit, outstanding character and outgoing personality have endeared him to all of us who know him. Jack is the "young-ish" guy in the center of the picture.
