Internal Affairs Complaints

The Haddon Heights Police Department will accept any report of misconduct on the part of law enforcement representatives within the Haddon Heights Police Department. Investigations may be administrative or criminal depending on the nature of the complaint. All police agencies are required by state law to maintain an Internal Affairs function. Administrative investigations are handled by the Haddon Heights Police Department. Criminal investigations are conducted under the supervision of the Camden County Prosecutor's Office.

Departamento de Leyes y Seguridad Pública • www.NJPDResources.org